

From the Pastor's Desk:

AND SO, IT IS 2011

I know that a great number of you do not believe that 2011 is going to be a good year. Well, unless the people of this once great nation repent, and they quit trying to heathenize themselves, then there is no doubt in my mind that this new years forecast will be very "flesh humbling."

Here's the long and short of it, we are not to just sit around and wait for the vast majority of the American people to wake-up, repent, and start living righteously. No, it is up to you and I (and I don't mean this in a flesh honoring way) who have been given the Way, the Truth, and the Life. We need to be Christian, because this is our calling through Jesus Christ, and we need to want to be as Christians more than the worldly people want to be worldly and amoral. 2011 is not just another year for us to just sit back and watch the corrupters of our nation be busy destroying and taking our nation away from us. I prefer to think of 2011 as an opportunity for God's people to ban together, put their petty differences aside for the sake of Christ and His Kingdom, and let us just simply do our best through the power of the Holy Spirit to live in Word and deed the Christian Faith. Let us be bold in the Faith and speak forth the refreshing and cleansing Truth of God's Word. Let us be doers of the Word and not hearers only. Psalms 15: 1-2 state: "Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? Who shall dwell in thy holy hill? He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

*May you all have a blessed and most Christian 2011,
Pastor Barley*

HERE IS SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT: In terms of unity, we are at a real disadvantage up against the left. It only takes one thing in common for "liberals" to unite. It only takes one difference of opinion for conservatives to divide.

GREAT CONFERENCE AT FIRST COVENANT CHURCH

I would like to thank Pastor Tom Rolland of First Covenant Church in Irving, Texas for hosting a great conference this past December, it was good to be among fellow Christian Israelite brethren. They have a very nice church building and a great group of Church leaders to help advance the Gospel of the Kingdom message. It does my heart good to witness God's Jacob Israel people stand together and work in the blessed Faith that moves upon our heart and is so vital to our National Destiny. It clearly is not the message of the majority today, but the Truth and Light is not for the majority in this age. It is for the sons of God, and I greatly cherish and value this beloved Truth and I want to encourage all Christian Israel believers in the Dallas area to please do their best to go to First Covenant Church and support them. Pastor Rolland is somewhat new to the ministry and needs your loving supportive help and encouragement. It's hard to believe, but yes, some of you have a hard time being patient and understanding, but I want to encourage all of you to pray for Pastor Rolland and encourage him beyond what he can stand. Believe me, the love and encouragement will not hurt him one bit, and you will see much good fruit come from this. You may write him at First Covenant Church, 1424 East Grauwlyer, Irving, TX 75061. – And thank you for doing this.

GET READY FOR ANOTHER VERY SPECIAL CONFERENCE

Manassas III: SKM Passover-Resurrection 2011 Bible Conference – Don't Miss It!

Dr. James Bruggeman writes: We will hold our third Passover-Resurrection Bible Conference in Manassas, Virginia, the weekend of April 22-24, 2011, the church's "Easter" weekend. From a prophetic sense, we are seeing that this conference will be about "the inheritance of the daughters." Therefore, we have invited three very special "daughters" to be among the teachers at this conference: Martha Barley, Idaho; Maureen Millar (Northern Ireland); Ernestine Young, Idaho; Dave Barley, Idaho; Stephen Jones, Minnesota; Ron Oja, Minnesota; and James Bruggeman, North Carolina.

The venue for the Manassas III Conference will be the Four Points-Sheraton, same as last year, a wonderful facility. We have reserved a block of rooms at discounted rates for Friday and Saturday nights (and also Thursday and Sunday nights, if you come early or stay late as many of us do). Please remember that the longer you wait to make a room reservation, the less chance of them being available at our group rate. Be sure to mention you are with the Stone Kingdom Ministries conference to get our special rate of $89/per night for a room with two doubles. No extra charge for up to four people. To make your room reservations, call the central reservations number for Four Points-Sheraton: 800-368-7764. The conference will begin on Friday at 9:30 a.m. It will conclude late Sunday afternoon. We will have the “Christ our Passover” Lord’s Supper on Good Friday evening, along with one or more teachers sharing. The Manassas Four Points-Sheraton is easy to find. It is just off I-66 at Exit 47, and located on the service road on the northeast side of the exit ramp complex. The street address is 10800 Vandor Lane, Manassas, VA 20109.

SHOULD WE BE PROUD OF OUR MILITARY?

by Pastor Dave Barley

Let me preface this article by stating that I served four years in the Air Force, plus a year and a half in the Reserves, and I felt a good sense of honor and pride in doing so. Now, certainly I had my disagreements with many of the policies and functions of the military, but I must say that sodomites were not tolerated in the military I once knew. In today’s military, things are different. Up until “Don’t ask, don’t tell,” it was inconceivable that sodomites would be allowed to openly display themselves as homosexuals.

We often hear the words, “I support the military,” and other similar words like, “I’m proud of our military.” Well, in light of our governments recent decision to legitimize sodomites being able to openly enlist and serve in the United States military branches, I have no choice but to renounce what our military has now become. I think that most Americans and in particular Christian people have forgotten that there is right and wrong, good and evil, and that we are required to choose between the two.

Deuteronomy 30:19

I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live:

Christians are to be the salt of the earth and what good is the salt if it is saltless? Certainly God Almighty is Sovereign, but the Sovereign is within His Divine Authority to also create us with “free will” that will ultimately be conformed into clay that has been fully formed and transformed into instruments of His Will in the final analysis. This short “free will” span of life in our terrestrial form is never free of God’s Divine Will, but it is given certain liberties that will ultimately be brought unto the Will of the Divine.

Truly, we will ultimately be conformed into His (Jesus Christ’s) image and likeness, but in this terrestrial life, we are required to make choices and these life choices have consequences. We do not just wake up in the mornings sit up in bed and say, OK Jesus, tell me to get out of bed, to fix breakfast, tell my children to wake-up and come down stairs to eat breakfast, tell my hand to turn my car key to start my car, tell my hands which direction to turn the wheel of my car and where to go, etc., and that we are just complete brainless robots with no opinions, options, or considerations that we may draw upon from the brain that God hath given us? Of course not. God gave us a brain to think with and He expects us to use it and to learn from our mistakes, even though, at the same time, we must never forget that we are being groomed to be conformed into His Image and Likeness, and that ultimately, our temporal ways will pass. Our will must be conformed into His Will.

Now, I deviated from our topic momentarily, that we might understand that we do have choices to make in this life, and that these choices do come with consequences. Furthermore, we must not shirk our God required duties and responsibilities, but that we should strive to be Christ honoring in our decisions and choices, knowing that they carry profound consequences upon our nation (its land and the people). Furthermore, there are less and more severe penalties to sin, and yet all sin, even the seemingly “little white-lie” can cause great harm. When it comes to such sins as murder and sodomy, the penalty is greater, for instance:

Leviticus 20:13

If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

The Word of God teaches that the sin of homosexuality is so vile that it is described as an “abomination” and that anyone who commits such a vile sin, should be put to death. Yet today’s media, most of our democratic congress including certain republican members, along with our obamable president, Obama, are jubilant that sodomy can openly be practiced and even honorably looked upon within America's various military branches. Yet, God's law explicitly forbids this abomination, and even attaches the death penalty upon it. How can WE THE PEOPLE of this nation who are Christians honestly and forthrightly ever look upon our military that now openly mocks and denies the Word of God? Also, lest anyone dares to crassly pass off such teachings of the Old Testament, let me remind you that the New Testament is equally and righteously indignant against the sin of sodomy:

Romans 1:26-28

26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: 27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient;

Yes, we are told that we are to hate the sin, but love the sinner, but this is utter nonsense in the issuance and distribution of our Biblical requirement as a people and as a nation to punish various violations of God's laws including the transgressions of idolatry, rape, murder, theft, adultery, and yes, sodomy. Please tell me how we can punish sin, without punishing the sinner? Tell me how Christians can ignore the laws of God and not face His Divine judgment? Furthermore, if man is free from the laws of God and their blessings and curses, then why do we still have those blessings and curses upon us in every area in which those laws are being violated today? If we are free from the laws of God, then we are free to make gods according to our own image and likeness, and legislate any form of "morality" that suits our desires.

I grieved over our government's originally proposed (Jesus Christ mocking) "Don't ask, don't tell policy," knowing that it was a mere conditioning ploy to soon legitimize sodomy within our military. But now, it is no longer "don't ask, don't tell," now it is "come out of the closet and openly be a sodomite," and, if any soldier dare object to this new set of military laws, he will be criminally charged with an article 15 action according to the newly revised "gay" military code of justice. Imagine having to salute a sodomite officer in today's "queer" military standards? What an insult to the good men who have served in the military and especially the demeaning and shameful reproach this sodomite military now confers upon those military personnel who bravely gave their life for this nation. A great cloud of shame is upon America, and this is why I ask all military personnel to resign or tender their resignation as soon as possible. The government thinks that they can pass any law or policy they want and that there is nothing we can do about it but wait and vote for the "lesser of two evils." Well, I have news for them, the truthful and righteous values from God's Word are not gray areas of subjective politically correct suggestions, they are for the good of Christendom and our national standing.

Joshua 24:15

And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

Again, fellow Christians, we cannot just sit back and not let the Light and Truth of the Kingdom of God shine forth in our word and deeds. The line in the proverbial sand is being drawn and we cannot be silent in the face of such blatant corruption as we now see throughout our nation. I hesitate not to say that when our nation blasphemes God's Word by legitimizing what Yahweh condemns Himself throughout His Word, then we can most certainly expect His Divine Wrath and Judgment upon our nation. We are not free from Divine Correction and we are not free to change or alter what God Himself condemns just so we can feel more gratified and justified by today's worldly sense of emotional truth.

Isaiah 1:2

Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

Please think about this most serious proposal and pray for this truth to be a growing truth among our military personnel and that it will grow within their heart. Many of us have long been aware of the sad truth that the enemy of our blessed nation is within our government, and we righteously fear for our nation because the people are mostly blind to this enemy and the danger they pose to this last bastion of Christian hope. Oddly, some people have proposed that soon, President Obama will convert to a man of hope and deliverance for our nation in 2011 or soon thereafter, according to some numeric set of signs they see. Well, it is not likely that this leopard will soon change his socialist spots, and furthermore, our good feelings of change do not make void our national judgment without true Biblical repentance and righting the wrong that is cursing our land today. America will not be blessed simply because of some set of dates or time cycle is upon us. No, this will only come about when the people repent and the reason for the curse is removed, because the people will at that time be complying and applying the teaching of God's Word. Now, don't get me wrong, I do believe that righteous change will one day happen, and who knows, that good day may be sooner than we think, but this I know, that when the day comes for the "curse" to be lifted, the time and date for this grand event will be correct and fully fulfilled. (end of article)

From the book, THE MAJESTY OF GOD'S LAW, It's Coming to America, by W. Cleon Skousen, page 338:

Law of the Anglo-Saxons Compared to the Bible

Many have suspected that the Anglo-Saxons must have included a branch of the ancient Israelites because they came from the territory of the Black Sea (where the Ten Tribes disappeared) and because they preserved many of the unique features of law and government which had been revealed to Moses.

To Jefferson, this was exciting.

Here are some examples of the Anglo-Saxon culture which closely paralleled that of the ancient Israelites:

- The Anglo-Saxons considered themselves a commonwealth of freemen as did the ancient Israelites.
- They organized themselves into units identical with those of the Israelites—tens, fifties, hundreds, thousands, etc. (Deut. 1:15)
- Among the Anglo-Saxons the head of 19 families was called a Tithing-man.
- The head of 50 families was called a Vil-man or head of a village.
- The head of 100 families was called a Hundred-man.
- The head of 1,000 families was called the Ealdorman, later shortened to earl. The territory occupied by 1,000 families was called a shire, and the administrative assistant to the earl was called the "shire reef," which later became "sheriff."

- All laws, as well as the election of leaders, had to be by the common consent of the people.
- Authority granted to a chieftain in time of war was extremely limited and was taken away from him as soon as the emergency had passed.
- Their system of justice was based on reparation to the victim rather than calling offenses a violation of the king's peace and having fines go into the king's coffers.

JEFFERSON ENCOURAGED ANGLO-SAXON REFORMS IN VIRGINIA

Jefferson was so impressed by the possibility of using the Anglo-Saxon system to make a gargantuan leap forward toward the laws revealed to ancient Israel, that he advocated stringent and immediate reforms.

On August 13, 1776, Jefferson wrote to Edmund Pendleton of the Virginia legislature to urge him to help abolish the remnants of feudalism, and return to the "ancient principles" which carry with them a promise from God. (end of article)

From the book, INTELLIGENCE WORK AND THE BIBLE, by Lt. Colonel J.A. McQueen, published in London by The Covenant Publishing Co. LTD. 6 Buckingham Gate, S.W. 1, in 1960:

I will be quoting from Chapter 11, DIFFICULTIES OTHER THAN IDENTITY, page 67-70: (Please note that some of the words are spelt in the old English way of spelling.)

Whilst space forbids consideration in detail of Scripture difficulties, whether major or minor, comments regarding some of the most prominent, and how they are best met, may be helpful. Difficulties may be due to:

(V). Difficulty of interpreting symbols used in parables and allegories.* Parables are short pictorial narratives from which morals are drawn. Allegories are figurative sentences or discourses in which the real subject is referred to indirectly by reference to another subject. The meaning of the symbols or types used is sometimes stated in the context, or may be readily conjectured from it; sometimes it is obscure. The same interpretation of a symbol applies consistently throughout the Scriptures. Of seventy parables in the Bible twenty occur in the Old Testament, fifty in the New. Some have personal and some have national application. Allegories are numerous throughout the Scriptures.

The interpretation of symbols cannot be dealt with briefly and also adequately. The following summarized interpretation of some outstanding symbols may, however, be found useful. Trees: nations. Fig-tree: House or Kingdom of Judah (i.e. Judah, Benjamin and Levi in political combination; not the Tribe of Judah.) Good figs: the Judahite captivity in Chaldea, and after (personal). Bad figs: the Judahite residue left in Jerusalem at the time of Babylonian captivity, and after (personal). (Note: Judah was a fruitful fig-tree, but some of her fruit was good and some bad. The barren fig-tree of our Lord's parable is a type of the Jewish nation which bore no fruit of the Spirit. The two trees, fruitful and barren, should not be confused.) Vineyard: House of Israel. Vine: Joseph, the fruitful bough (Gen.49:22). The birthright blessing was Joseph's (1 Chron. 5:2). (Note: The fig-tree of Judah, the pleasant plant, stood within the birthright inheritance which was held of all Israel by Joseph, whose "vine" is symbolic of the northern Kingdom of Israel; a fruitful vine whose branches ran over the wall.) Oil: the Holy Spirit. Olive Tree: Israel (Tribal), the medium through which the olive oil of the Holy Spirit should be poured out on mankind. The Church was of Israelite origins. Bramble: Canaanites. Seeds: good of several kinds including "wheat", which latter symbolizes Israel; bad tares—the children of the wicked one generally, and more specifically the Esau-Edomite (Herodian) infiltrations into Jewry. Broken bottle: House of Judah (not the Tribe of Judah, which was to rejoin Israel and flourish). Clay re-modelled by Potter: House of Israel (12 tribed), Cedar of Lebanon: Royal House in Israel. Great eagle ("nesher", a beast of prey, an Assyrian emblem): Babylonian ruler (Nebuchadnezzar, head of succession of Gentile empires). Composite Image of gold, silver, brass and iron: Empires of Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Rome; also portrayed as beasts: lion, leopard, ram, goat. Stone, cut out without hands: a Kingdom set up by the God of Heaven: redeemed and literal Israel under the New Covenant. Mountain of the Lord's House: Israel. Candlesticks: churches. Waters: peoples, nations, multitudes and tongues. Earth (political): realm occupied by nations of the Babylonian succession of empires. Heavens (political): Christian Israel and her associates. Sea (political): people of all colours and creeds surrounding the "earth" and receiving illumination from the "heavens".

(vi) Heraldic symbols are important. Their adoption by ruling families goes back to remote antiquity. In the wilderness the Israelites pitched camp "every man...by his own standard, with the ensign of their father's house" (Num.2:2). Traditional Jewish information shows that the emblems adopted had reference to the cryptic blessings which Jacob pronounced on his twelve sons and also, in a lesser degree, to the blessings which Moses laid upon the tribes just before his death. A most interesting feature is that the four beasts, living creatures: lion, ox, man, and flying eagle of Ezekiel 1:10 and Revelation 4:7 are found to be the emblems of the leading tribes (Judah, Ephraim, Reuben, Dan) in each of the four brigades of Israel in the four-square wilderness camp, thus symbolizing all Israel in perpetual remembrance and service before the Throne of God. The symbolic tribal emblems are: Judah, lion (Gen. 49:9; Rev. 5:5); Ephraim, bullock (Deut. 33:17); Reuben, man (Num.2:10); Dan, both eagle and serpent (Gen.49:17), whose practice of naming places after the tribal father (e.g. Don, Donau, Danube, Dniester, Denmark, etc.) has furnished way-marks of passage, such as the trail of a serpent in the dust. The harp is traditionally associated with the Royal House of David. It is of much interest and value to examine the Royal Arms of Britain and also the Great Seal of America (both observe and reverse) in relation to Israel heraldry, whose significance and importance in this connection should not be overlooked but duly assessed. (end of article)

A Holy Tree Cast Down By Vandals

by NPR, December 12, 2010

As if the English weren't already crying in their pints over tough times at home, now comes this: Last week, vandals sawed the limbs off the Glastonbury Holy Thorn Tree, reducing it to a stump. The tree is thought by some to have ties to the earliest days of Christianity, and each year local children cut sprigs from it to garnish the Queen's Christmas dining table.

Legend has it that the thorn tree sprouted from the staff of St. Joseph of Arimathea after he arrived in England from the Middle East 2,000 years ago. Experts says this type of thorn tree usually lives for just 100 years, but Glastonbury residents have kept the line going by periodically taking clippings to plant new trees.

All is not lost, according to Tony Kirkham of the Royal Botanic Gardens at Kew. He says of the tree: It will obviously be deformed but it will put grafts out next spring. The Holy Thorn Tree could recover in about 10 years.

EATING FRUIT

We all think eating fruit means just buying fruit, cutting it up and popping it into our mouths. It's not that easy. It's important to know how and when to eat fruit.

What's the correct way to eat fruit?

IT MEANS NOT EATING FRUIT AFTER A

MEAL! FRUIT SHOULD BE EATEN ON AN EMPTY STOMACH.

Eating fruit like that plays a major role in detoxifying your system, supplying you with a great deal of energy for weight loss and other life activities.

FRUIT IS THE MOST IMPORTANT FOOD.

Let's say you eat two slices of bread, then a slice of fruit. The slice of fruit is ready to go straight through the stomach into the intestines, but it's prevented from doing so.

In the meantime, the whole meal rots and ferments, and turns to acid. The minute the fruit comes into contact with the food in the stomach, and digestive juices, the entire mass of food begins to spoil.

Eat your fruit on an empty stomach, or before your meal! You've heard people complain: Every time I eat watermelon I burp, when I eat durian my stomach bloats, when I eat a banana I feel like running to the toilet, etc. This will not happen if you eat the fruit on an empty stomach. Fruit mixes with the putrefying other food and produces gas. Hence, you bloat!

There's no such thing as some fruits, like orange and lemon are acidic, because all fruit becomes alkaline in our body, according to Dr. Herbert Shelton who did research on this matter. If you have mastered the correct way of eating fruit, you have the Secret of Beauty, Longevity, Health, Energy, Happiness and normal weight.

When you need to drink fruit juice drink only fresh fruit juice, NOT the concentrated juice from the cans. Don't drink juice that has been heated. Don't eat cooked fruit; you don't get the nutrients at all. You get only the taste. Cooking destroys all of the vitamins.

Eating a whole fruit is better than drinking the juice. If you should drink the juice, drink it mouthful by mouthful slowly, because you must let it mix with your saliva before swallowing it. You can go on a 3-day fruit-fast to cleanse your body. Eat fruit and drink fruit juice for just 3 days, and you will be surprised when your friends say how radiant you look!

KIWI: Tiny but mighty, and a good source of potassium, magnesium, vitamin E and fiber. Its vitamin C content is twice that of an orange!

AN APPLE a day keeps the doctor away? Although an apple has a low vitamin C content, it has antioxidants and flavonoids which enhances the activity of vitamin C, thereby helping to lower the risk of colon cancer, heart attack and stroke.

STRAWBERRY: Protective Fruit. Strawberries have the highest total antioxidant power among major fruits and protect the body from cancer-causing, blood vessel-clogging free radicals.

EATING 2 - 4 ORANGES a day may help keep colds away, lower cholesterol, prevent and dissolve kidney stones, and reduce the risk of colon cancer.

WATERMELON: Coolest thirst quencher. Composed of 92% water, it is also packed with a giant dose of glutathione, which helps boost our immune system. Also a key source of lycopene, the cancer-fighting oxidant. Also found in watermelon: Vitamin C and Potassium.

GUAVA & PAPAYA: Top awards for vitamin C. They are the clear winners for their high vitamin C content. Guava is also rich in fiber, which helps prevent constipation. Papaya is rich in carotene, good for your eyes.

The World's Largest Army. America's Hunters?

"Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful people can change the world. Indeed, it's the ONLY thing that ever has." - Margaret Mead -

"The state of Wisconsin has gone an entire deer hunting season without someone getting killed. That's great. There were over 600,000 hunters.

Allow me to restate that number. Over the last two months, the eighth largest army in the world - more men under arms than Iran; more than France and Germany combined - deployed to the woods of a single American state to help keep the deer menace at bay.

But that pales in comparison to the 750,000 who are in the woods of Pennsylvania this week. Michigan's 700,000 hunters have now returned home. Toss in a quarter million hunters in West Virginia, and it is literally the case that the hunters of those four states alone would comprise the largest army in the world. America will forever be safe from foreign invasion of troops with that kind of home-grown firepower.

Hunting - it's not just a way to fill the freezer. It's a matter of national security!"

THE KING'S SPEECH

(written by Michael Clark, of Covenant Publishing)

The King's Speech film features George VI and his stammering speech. He was left-handed and had been forced to write with his right hand as a child which causes speech stammering.

Isaiah 28:11 King James Bible

"For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people."

1662 Book of Common Prayer First Lesson for Morning Prayer Oct 28 is Isaiah 28:9-16 Woe to Ephraim (Britain)

This was read on Oct 28 1971 when, in the evening, the British House of Commons voted for Britain to join Europe in principle by a majority of 112. The European Treaty of Accession was then signed on Jan 22 1972 by Prime Minister Edward Heath after having black printers' ink thrown over him which delayed the signing by one hour -- Babylon falls in "one hour" (Revelation 18).

It was the anniversary of the death of Queen Victoria on Jan 22 1901. The "covenant with death" was signed and the lady who threw the ink was wearing purple - the colour of death on the Continent. It reminded us of the following and almost prophetic lines:

*"With inky blots and rotten parchment bonds;
That England, that was wont to conquer others,
Hath made a shameful conquest of itself.
Ah, would the scandal vanish with my life,*

How happy then were my ensuing death!

(Shakespeare's Richard II, John of Gaunt, Act 2, Scene 1)

January 22 2011 will be 3 x 12 x 390 solar days (or 3 x 13 years) from Jan 22 1972 which has the meaning of trouble for Ephraim-Britain.

MICHAEL A CLARK

[Please note, that the following is not an actual speech given by a Principle, but a speech written by Dennis Prager. I sure find it most refreshing, Pastor Barley]

A Speech Every American High School Principal Should Give.....

By Dennis Prager

To the students and faculty of our high school: I am your new principal, and honored to be so. There is no greater calling than to teach young people.

I would like to apprise you of some important changes coming to our school. I am making these changes because I am convinced that most of the ideas that have dominated public education in America have worked against you, against your teachers and against our country.

First, this school will no longer honor race or ethnicity. I could not care less if your racial makeup is black, brown, red, yellow or white. I could not care less if your origins are African, Latin American, Asian or European, or if your ancestors arrived here on the Mayflower or on slave ships. The only identity I care about, the only one this school will recognize, is your individual identity -- your character, your scholarship, your humanity. And the only national identity this school will care about is American. This is an American public school, and American public schools were created to make better Americans. If you wish to affirm an ethnic, racial or religious identity through school, you will have to go elsewhere. We will end all ethnicity, race and non-American nationality-based celebrations. They undermine the motto of America, one of its three central values -- e pluribus Unum, "from many, one." And this school will be guided by America's values. This includes all after-school clubs. I will not authorize clubs that divide students based on any identities. This includes race, language, religion, sexual orientation or whatever else may become in vogue in a society divided by political correctness.

Your clubs will be based on interests and passions, not blood, ethnic, racial or other physically defined ties. Those clubs just cultivate narcissism -- an unhealthy preoccupation with the self -- while the purpose of education is to get you to think beyond yourself. So we will have clubs that transport you to the wonders and glories of art, music, astronomy, languages you do not already speak, carpentry and more. If the only extracurricular activities you can imagine being interesting in are those based on ethnic, racial or sexual identity, that means that little outside of yourself really interests you.

Second, I am uninterested in whether English is your native language. My only interest in terms of language is that you leave this school speaking and writing English as fluently as possible. The English language has united America's citizens for over 200 years, and it will unite us at this school. It is one of the indispensable reasons this country of immigrants has always come to be one country. And if you leave this school without excellent English language skills, I would be remiss in my duty to ensure that you will be prepared to successfully compete in the American job market. We will learn other languages here -- it is deplorable that most Americans only speak English --but if you want classes taught in your native language rather than in English, this is not your school.

Third, because I regard learning as a sacred endeavor, everything in this school will reflect learning's elevated status. This means, among other things, that you and your teachers will dress accordingly. Many people in our society dress more formally for Hollywood events than for church or school. These people have their priorities backward. Therefore, there will be a formal dress code at this school.

Fourth, no obscene language will be tolerated anywhere on this school's property -- whether in class, in the hallways or at athletic events. If you can't speak without using the f-word, you can't speak. By obscene language I mean the words banned by the Federal Communications Commission, plus epithets such as "Nigger," even when used by one black student to address another black, or "bitch," even when addressed by a girl to a girlfriend.. It is my intent that by the time you leave this school, you will be among the few your age to instinctively distinguish between the elevated and the degraded, the holy and the obscene.

Fifth, we will end all self-esteem programs. In this school, self-esteem will be attained in only one way -- the way people attained it until decided otherwise a generation ago -- by earning it. One immediate consequence is that there will be one valedictorian, not eight.

Sixth, and last, I am reorienting the school toward academics and away from politics and propaganda. No more time will be devoted to scaring you about smoking and caffeine, or terrifying you about sexual harassment or global warming. No more semesters will be devoted to condom wearing and teaching you to regard sexual relations as only or primarily a health issue. There will be no more attempts to convince you that you are a victim because you are not white, or not male, or not heterosexual or not Christian. We will have failed if any one of you graduates this school and does not consider him or herself inordinately lucky -- to be alive and to be an American.

Now, please stand and join me in the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of our country. As many of you do not know the words, your teachers will hand them out to you. (end)

BASIC FACT: The colonists were not paragons of "diversity." They came from one part of Europe. They spoke a common language. They worshipped the same God. From 1629 to 1775 there were four waves of migration from four geographical regions of England (from book the Politically Incorrect Guide to American History, page 1)

NEW HEALTH MESSAGES FROM DOUG EVERS ARE NOW AVAILABLE

9 messages on health are now available for any offering amount. Furthermore, if you are Obama broke and wish to receive these health lectures, we will be happy to send them to you free of charge. These messages were recorded at Sister Ernestine Young's local congregation in Nampa, Idaho, and she has asked us to produce this special health seminar and make them available to you good people. We pray they will be a blessing to you. Just ask for the Doug Evers Health Seminar. (Please specify DVD or CD.)

A CLOSING QUOTE & THOUGHT
"Before you tear a fence down, make sure you know why it was put up in the first place." This was told to me by a lady in the Post Office recently, and it is so true. Hey, here's some quick suggestions for the New Year; avoid greasy food, exercise more, eat more vegetables and fruits and stay close to Jesus. Let us all do our best to be more caring, understanding, truthful, and exercise the God given common sense He has given us and expects us to purge through the reading of His Word...
