ARE YOU READY TO ENTER THE KINGDOM OF GOD?

Under the leadership of Joshua, which is the Hebrew equivalent of Jesus, the children of Israel prepared to enter the Promised Land to establish the Kingdom of God. First of all, Joshua himself had to be prepared to assume the role as Israel's new leader. He died at the age of 110, the same number of stories of the World Trade Center. To me, there is little doubt that the fall of the world trade centers marked the start of the fall of Mystery Babylon (this could cover a 15 year period of time). Possibly the time leading up for the Sons of God to enter the Kingdom as Joshua and the refined flock of Israel who were delayed for 40 years of grooming before they were allowed to possess the Kingdom. Did you know that Joshua was born with the name "Hoshea" (Numbers 13:8), but was later renamed Joshua. Isn't it interesting how many leaders of Israel had their name changed such as Abram to Abraham, Jacob to Israel, Simon to Peter, or Saul to Paul. They all had name changes of revelation and spiritual transformation depicting new spiritual roles, and a new spiritual nature. Even Israel would be given a new name.

Isaiah 62:2

And the Gentiles [nations] shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD SHALL name.

Taking the Kingdom of Jericho was a spiritual exercise and experience for the Israelites. For six days, seven priests with seven trumpets blew their trumpets. They were preceded by "armed men," most likely appointed captains of the various tribes of Israel. Following the priests was the Ark of the Covenant, and a rear guard. On the seventh day, they compassed the city seven times. (It is quite apparent that there is a vital spiritual meaning and significance for the number seven and their entering the kingdom.) Then the priests blew their seven trumpets, and then Joshua commanded the people to "shout" and the wall of Jericho fell down flat. We are not told what particular form of "shout" the children of Israel shouted, but I suspect that it was a highly anointed shout given unto them after the seventh trumpet that may very well have provided the very anointing for the required shout. Clearly it was a Divinely appointed frequency that also emitted great fear upon the Canaanite residents. I believe that when the time of our transformation into the Sons of God arrives, that great "SOUND" will change our old Adam flesh nature and transform us into the Sons of God, ready to enter the Kingdom of God. I look forward to that anointed frequency in which we shall be changed and become new creatures in Jesus Christ.

Matthew 24:31

And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

There are many types and shadows of spiritual significance to help us transform from the Old Covenant form into the New Covenant form. For instance, let us consider the "Captain of the Lord of Hosts" whom Joshua encountered just before the siege of Jericho. We find this most interesting event recorded in Joshua 5:13-15.

Joshua 5:13-15

13 And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, behold, there stood a man over against him with his sword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went unto him, and said unto him, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries?

14 And he said, Nay; but as captain of the host of the LORD AM I now come. And Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and did worship, and said unto him, What saith my lord unto his servant?

15 And the captain of the LORD's host said unto Joshua, Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is holy. And Joshua did so.

All Biblical narratives lead to Christ, and this event does as well. Where we are given the revelation of Jesus Christ, we need to take special notice of His appearing and the message He is conveying. Remember when Moses went upon Mt. Sinai to encounter our beloved “I AM,” the “YHWH,” he was commanded to remove his shoes because he was upon Holy ground, meaning, he was in the presence of God, Holy Light and Truth. Joshua finds himself in a similar situation before the “Captain of the Lord of the Host,” and he is asked to loose his shoes from off his feet. Why? Because his feet were so clean and pure? I hardly think so. No, I think this might have more to do with Jesus Christ in His pre-incarnate form wanting to impart a spiritual anointing upon Joshua. I am not sure what all this signifies and represents, but it could involve understanding what “Holy Ground” revelation epitomizes. It could be that through the ground Joshua was upon, the shoes he was wearing inhibited the “circuit” through which he was to receive the anointing. The ground or dirt of the earth is unclean, so the reason for removing the shoes has to be for other reasons than being clean. Certainly the removal of the shoes show respect or reverence, but there is no doubt in my mind that more happened in this Divinely appointed meeting than just telling Joshua to remove his shoes.

The Scriptures do not elaborate on any further revelation concerning this strange event, but you can be certain that Words of Truth, and Revelation were imparted to Joshua regarding how he and Israel were to enter the Kingdom. Holy ground corresponds with the Holy Ghost/Spirit, but “ground” clearly applies to Adamic dust or earth. In other words, God is doing a great spiritual work within the seed of Adam. Our old Adamic nature has to be transformed before we can enter the Kingdom of God. In the Hebrew, this term “ground” in the Strong’s Concordance is number 127: ‘adamah (ad-aw-maw’); from OT:119; soil (from its general redness).

1 Corinthians 15:53

For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

Now this may sound strange to some of you, but we have to die (in some form that is spiritually advantageous) before we can stand before the great I AM, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob/Israel. When Moses and Joshua came before God Almighty, they had to “spiritually” die, dust to dust, but when the dead hear the Master’s Voice, they shall be changed (“THEY THAT HEAR SHALL LIVE,” John 5:25). Their old Adamic nature had to be spiritually transformed into the nature of Jesus Christ the last Adam. The HOLY GROUND represents this new spiritual transformation, putting off the old and putting on the new. Joshua and Moses were translated before the Living God, on Holy Ground, altering their inner man. They were “unholy” in their old Adamic form and nature and when they stepped upon “holy ground,” they were spiritually made alive. Believe it or not fellow Christians, we have to die (in a spiritual manner) to become new creatures, made alive in Christ Jesus. Here are some supportive verses on this for your consideration:

John 5:25

Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

John 11:25

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

Romans 8:2

For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

1 Corinthians 15:45-50

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

Ephesians 2:1

And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

Ephesians 2:5-10

5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:

7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

8 For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

9 Not of works, lest any man should boast.

10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

Colossians 3:1-3

1 If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

Titus 3:5-7

5 Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

6 Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

FLESH AND BLOOD CANNOT INHERIT THE KINGDOM OF GOD. Before we can truly enter the Kingdom of God, we must be translated into new creatures with a new anointing, and new mind, a new heart, a new creation in Jesus Christ. Could it be that when we are given the anointing that will prepare us to enter the Kingdom of God, that we will be given the keys of the Kingdom?

Matthew 16:19

And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

What was Joshua given when he was before the CAPTAIN OF THE LORD OF HOSTS? I believe that he was given "KEYS" for entering the Kingdom. We are told in Joshua 6:2, "And the LORD said unto Joshua, See, I have given into thine hand Jericho, and the king thereof, and the mighty men of valour." What God gave unto Joshua, He describes as giving it unto "thine hand."

Strong's Concordance explains the term "thine hand" as: "OT:3027 (yawd); a primitive word; a hand (the open one indicating power, means, direction, etc.), in distinction from OT:3709, the closed one); used (as noun, adverb, etc.) in a great variety of applications, both literally and figuratively, both proximate and remote [as follows]:" Notice I underlined the words "power, means, direction," The word "MEANS" represents a KEY, or KEYS for Joshua to "LOOSE ON EARTH" what would be "LOOSED IN HEAVEN." Meaning, Joshua would be shown what he must do in order to successfully lay siege upon the Old Covenant Promised Land. We in like manner will need to receive the KEYS OF THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN to enter and possess the New Covenant Promised Land of the New Jerusalem.

I should also point out that Jesus (the Captain of our Salvation) appears before Joshua with "His sword drawn in His hand," and it is clear that judgment is about to fall upon the Canaanite kingdom. Judgment is most certainly coming for Mystery Babylon, and is even upon the nation and nations of Mystery Babylon at this very time. Need I remind you of all the fires, tornadoes, hurricanes, economic collapse and other pestilence, riots, and earthquakes that are upon America, Canada, and throughout Europe?

The entering of the Kingdom of God that is before us will not be exactly like the old that we are reading about in the book of Joshua, however, there will be many spiritual similar events that will be patterned after the old. For instance, the SWORD of the Captain of the Lord of Host will appear again as Israel prepares to enter the Kingdom in these end-time days, only this time the SWORD will be a two-edged sword of Holy Spirit infused Word and Truth upon the hearts of the Sons of God. We will be awakened with the shout of our coming King Jesus Christ, which is described in 1 Thessalonians 4:16 as a voice of an arch angel. We will then become Two-edged Swords of His Spirit and we will be fully equipped with His Spirit, Truth, and Light that will be necessary in dealing with the bondage and corruption that is upon the "creation."

Romans 8:18-23

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope,

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

Lastly, "men of war" were forbidden to enter the Kingdom (Joshua 5:6-7)

6 For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the people that were men of war, which came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD : unto whom the LORD sware that he would not shew them the land, which the LORD sware unto their fathers that he would give us, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

7 And their children, whom he raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised: for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way.

Notice, in type, they had uncircumcised hearts. Men like Dick Cheney are men of war and do not have a circumcised heart. Ron Paul is of a different type. He has a circumcised heart, and I have no doubt that he has been anointed for the ministry he now has to help impart important truth and expose the corruption of Mystery Babylon. The good news is that Jesus Christ is preparing and anointing His Sons of God for a great Joshua ministry for entering the blessed Kingdom of God.

Closing thought, If you look at what is man's doing it makes you angry, bitter, and hateful. But if you keep your eyes on the Lord Jesus Christ, you see the bigger picture of all things working together for good. Come Lord Jesus come, we eagerly await your blessed Kingdom. Prepare our hearts and mind for this blessed event when the Sons of God shall reign with You in Your Kingdom of Righteousness. ~Pastor Barley

A Black Man's Point Of View

Lloyd Marcus (black) Unhyphenated American,
Singer/Songwriter, Entertainer,
Author, Artist & Tea Party Patriot

No white man could ever write an article like this and survive the press to tell about it.

As millions of my fellow Americans, I am outraged, devastated and extremely angry by the democrat's unbelievable arrogance and disdain for We the People. Despite our screaming "no" from the rooftops, they forced ObamaCare down our throats. Please forgive me for using the following crude saying, but it is very appropriate to describe what has happened. "Don't urinate on me and tell me it's raining." Democrats say their mission is to give all Americans health care. The democrats are lying. Signing ObamaCare into law against our will and the Constitution is tyranny and step one of their hideous goal of having as many Americans as possible dependent on government, thus controlling our lives and fulfilling Obama's promise to fundamentally transform America.

I keep asking myself. How did our government move so far from the normal procedures of getting things done? Could a white president have so successfully pulled off shredding the Constitution to further his agenda? I think not.

Ironically, proving America is completely the opposite of the evil racist country they relentlessly accuse her of being, progressives used America's goodness, guilt and sense of fair play against her. In their quest to destroy America as we know it, progressives borrowed a brilliant scheme from Greek mythology. They offered America a modern day Trojan Horse, a beautifully crafted golden shiny new black man as a presidential candidate. Democrat Joe Biden lauded Obama as the first clean and articulate African American candidate. Democrat Harry Reid said Obama only uses a black dialect when he wants.

White America relished the opportunity to vote for a black man naively believing they would never suffer the pain of being called racist again. Black Americans viewed casting their vote for Obama as the ultimate Affirmative Action for America's sins of the past. Then there were the entitlement loser voters who said, "I'm votin' for the black dude who promises to take from those rich SOB's and give to me."

Just as the deceived Trojans dragged the beautifully crafted Trojan Horse into Troy as a symbol of their victory, deceived Americans embraced the progressive's young, handsome, articulate and so called moderate black presidential candidate as a symbol of their liberation from accusation of being a racist nation. Also like the Trojan Horse, Obama was filled with the enemy hiding inside.

Sunday, March 21, 2010, a secret door opened in Obama, the shiny golden black man. A raging army of democrats charged out. Without mercy, they began their vicious bloody slaughter of every value, freedom and institution we Americans hold dear; launching the end of America as we know it. Wielding swords of votes reeking with the putrid odor of back door deals, the democrats landed a severe death blow to America and individual rights by passing ObamaCare.

The mainstream liberal media has been relentlessly badgering the Tea Party movement with accusations of racism. Because I am a black tea party patriot, I am bombarded with interviewers asking me the same veiled question. "Why are you siding with these white racists against America's first African American president?" I defend my fellow patriots who are white stating, "These patriots do not give a hoot about Obama's skin color. They simply love their country and oppose his radical agenda. Obama's race is not an issue."

Recently, I have come to believe that perhaps I am wrong about Obama's race not being an issue.

In reality, Obama's presidency has everything to do with racism, but not from the Tea Party movement. Progressives and Obama have exploited his race from the rookie senator's virtually unchallenged presidential campaign to his unprecedented bullying of America into Obama Care. Obama's race trumped all normal media scrutiny of him as a presidential candidate and most recently even the Constitution of the United States. Obama Care forces all Americans to purchase health care which is clearly unconstitutional.

No white president could get away with boldly and arrogantly thwarting the will of the American people and ignoring laws. President Clinton tried universal health care. Bush tried social security reform. The American people said "no" to both presidents' proposals and it was the end of it. So how can Obama get away with giving the American people the finger? The answer. He is black. The mainstream liberal media continues to portray all who oppose Obama in any way as racist. Despite a list of failed policies, overreaches into the private sector, violations of the Constitution and planned destructive legislation too numerous to mention in this article, many Americans are still fearful of criticizing our first black president. Incredible.

My fellow Americans, you must not continue to allow yourselves to be "played" and intimidated by Obama's race or the historical context of his presidency. If we are to save America, the greatest nation on the planet, Obama's progressive agenda must be stopped. (end)

Race is Family

By Melek DiaBendia
ICONOCLAST

A race is just a group of biologically related individuals, just like your family. A race in fact, is an extended family. So, just as it's natural and healthy to love your own family, and to feel a bond of loyalty with your own family, because they are kin to you, it's also natural to feel a bond of love and loyalty to your own race, your extended family, because they are kin to you. You should feel stronger feelings of love and loyalty for your own family than for other people's families, and you should also feel stronger love and loyalty for your own race, than for other races. That's just natural. It doesn't necessarily mean that you try to hurt other families, or other races, than your own, but you DO look out for the interests of your own family, and your own race, first. For example, we live in a world of diminishing natural resources, and with growing overpopulation, diminishing territory. Whenever there are limited resources, such as food, it's natural to make sure that your family and your race are fed first. So, that natural loyalty and love for your own kind does sometimes extend to making a decision which must affect the exclusion or detriment of other races. Otherwise, if you thought that all families were equal to your own and had an equal right to everything, then all of your neighbors would forever be camped out in your living room eating your groceries.

Therefore, when it comes to that awful word, "hate"....well, how would you describe the natural emotion you should feel when someone or something threatens your family? Would you feel love for a stranger who climbed over your backyard fence and killed and ate your dog? Would you feel love for a burglar who raped your wife and killed your kids while robbing your home? Of course not. What you would feel for them, naturally, could correctly be defined as hate. Either your children or somebody else's are going to succeed. Either the White race or another race will inherit the earth. All emotions have their polar opposites which balance them. Anger is balanced by Fear, and Love is balanced by Hate.. You cannot truly love your family, or your race, unless you also acknowledge an equally powerful and real hatred for anything which threatens their existence.

I don't hate individuals of any race, because it isn't personal to me. It's much more important than that. It's more important than all of us. It's about what the human species will be a thousand and ten thousand years from now. It's about whether science and technology will continue to advance so that the species can get off-planet and colonize other worlds, insuring that the entire bunch of us won't be wiped out by one rogue asteroid. It's about the continual honing process through competition between the races that we call evolution, and making sure that it continues. It's about what's in the best interests of the species as a whole. And because I have that perspective, and that larger worldview, yep, THAT'S what gives me the right to judge.

Am I missing something here? How in heaven's name can any logical thinking individual believe in equality? And if God is God, how can anyone preach that He is color blind? God is not stupid. If I can tell the difference, He certainly ought to be able to!!!

I am a very strong believer in diversity, and I believe God is as well. And I believe diversity is the strength of our society, and that the protection of diversity should be our chief concern and endeavor. Diversity can only be protected and maintained by keeping the various diverse elements separated, and preventing the amalgamation of the races. If diversity is societies strength, then the amalgamation of the races is societies greatest weakness. When everyone is cast into the great melting pot, and intermixed into one, all diversity is destroyed. "God is not the author of confusion." God is the author of righteous governmental orderly arrangement, everything having an ordained place, and everything being in its proper place or orbit. "God so loved the world (Greek = Cosmos = orderly arrangement)."

I believe the Lord loves all of His creation and does not want the diverse elements destroyed through amalgamation. The Lord loves all of His creation, and the orderly arrangement he created it in. The problem is that man, in his desire to over ride God's perfect orderly arrangement, has perverted the Love of God, and turned it into man's lust. I believe the Lord loves diversity, but amalgamation destroys all diversity. We see God's order in the plant and animal kingdoms. The Humming Bird does not breed with the Blue Bird. The Black Bear does not breed with the Grizzly Bear. A Bass does not breed with a Trout. A pine tree does not inter pollinate with an oak. Of all the various species of plants and animals the norm is segregation. Now the dog does intermix, but it is interesting to note that in scripture the dog is always used as a negative symbol. And who wants to be equated with a dog anyway (expect for dogs).

DENOMINATIONAL DECEPTION

The problem is that the fallen judeo-Christian denominational religious orders in this country have convinced the luke warm white Christians that there is no longer any such thing as race. That we are all the same, equal in every way. They have been condemned into denying the obvious. Contrary to the teachings of these jewish worshipping denominational preachers, all upright walking talking creatures are not equal. God is obviously not an equalitarian on any level or in any form or fashion. He does not love equally, and He does not call or choose equally, whether it be individuals, families, genders, nations, or races. Man is a fool in all of his reasoning, and his efforts to equate fleshly sexual intercourse and marriage between races with Christ's spiritual gift of salvation toward all men is indicative of the inability natural mind to comprehend spiritual things apart from religious emotionalism.

Now No More Race With God?

"There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus." (Gal. 3:28).

"For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith which worketh by love." (Gal. 5:6)

"For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature." (Gal. 6:15)

A common argument is that God now takes no cognizance of race, that all racial distinctions are done away. That God Himself has gone color blind. And yet these very objectors to God having distinctive differences in His plan, purpose, and orderly arrangement, hold strong views about the Jews, and their future: and they will speak of the present age as "the Times of the Gentiles," implying marked distinctions, which seems a little contradictory. They are perfectly willing to hold the jews up as a separate and distinct, holy and chosen people, above all others.

How much misunderstanding seems to exist as to the meaning of the words "in Christ Jesus." The true meaning is surely that, in the matter of Salvation there is no difference between Jew or Greek, or anybody else; that all have sinned and are under condemnation; and that deliverance is only in the Son of God. Being a "new creature" does not depend upon any question of race, social position or sex, but only on being in Christ Jesus.

Note that the verse does not deny that there were Jews and Greeks, nay, the distinction is fully admitted. The only point here emphasized by the Apostle is that all true believers, though so different in all other respects, are spiritually one in our Lord. St. Paul was dealing here purely with spiritual matters. Objectors, however, applied the words to cover everything as if God considered only the spiritual phase of human existence, and altogether ignored the realities of man's temporal life.

This verse does not end at the words "there is neither Jew nor Greek." All objectors seem to stop there, and read no further; but the verse goes on, it proceeds to add that "there is neither bond nor free"; yet this was the state of society in that period. In our times it is the equivalent of employer and employee. In this regard a great change comes over the objector's attitude; he is not so ready to accept this part of the verse quite so literally. He agrees that in matters of salvation there was no difference, but in the affairs of this life he does not so apply it. Especially if he happens to be an employer of labor, and, of course he recognizes all the differences between employer and employee. Then why not be consistent about racial differences in real life, even as God most certainly does differentiate? In His Holy Word He gives full instructions to masters and servants as to how each must behave towards the other, precise orders are given to each. Why so, if there is no difference between them? Exactly in the same way God does maintain the great differences of race. God allotted special functions and duties to each individual, separate and distinct race. It should be noted that the verse goes still further to state that in Christ Jesus "there is neither male nor female." This is true in the spiritual sphere, but does a Christian refuse in social life to recognize the difference? The Christian man always marries a woman, yet "there is no difference?" While God sees no distinction between male and female in the matter of salvation, in regard to this life on earth He prescribes the separate duties of each showing that there is essential difference. Similarly, God emphatically shows His views on racial distinctions. If one can use this scripture to justify racial intermarriage, then those advocates of the homosexual lifestyle can also use it to justify same sex marriages.

God still takes cognizance of races and nations. He has a plan and purpose for each and every one of them, just as He has a separate and distinct plan and purpose for each of us as individuals.

Stewart Nozette admits spy-for-Israel charge

7 September 2011 Last updated at 14:20 ET (BBC NEWS)

A former government scientist charged with attempting to sell technology secrets to Israel has confessed to one count of attempted espionage.

Stewart Nozette is expected to serve a sentence of 13 years in prison after making a plea deal with prosecutors. He has been in jail since his arrest in 2009 after a sting operation by an undercover FBI agent posing as an Israeli intelligence officer.

Nozette, 54, was accused of seeking millions of dollars to sell secrets. He could have faced a death sentence if convicted on all four counts of attempted espionage with which he had been charged.

'Career choice'

The Department of Justice said none of the charges alleged that any US laws were broken by the government of Israel or anyone working on its behalf. Nozette had high-level security clearances during several decades of working for the government, including at Nasa, the National Space Council and the Department of Energy.

He appeared on Wednesday in court in a prison jumpsuit and told the judge he understood the charge to which he was pleading.

Nozette told the undercover FBI agent - who posed as an officer for the Israeli secret service, Mossad - that the secrets he was offering had cost the US government anywhere from $200m (£125m) to nearly $1bn to develop.

According to court papers, Nozette met the undercover agent at the upmarket Mayflower Hotel in downtown Washington in October 2009. He is quoted as telling the agent: "I've crossed the Rubicon... I've made a career choice."

"I'm prepared to give them the whole thing... all the technical specifications," he is also quoted as having said.

Out of his suburban Washington home, Nozette ran the Alliance for Competitive Technology, a non-profit organisation with agreements to develop technology for the US government. Prosecutors say Nozette agreed to provide regular information to Mossad through a post office box in exchange for money. He allegedly asked for an Israeli passport and accepted two payments - both under $10,000, so as to avoid reporting them. (end of article)
